

Gesu Book Club News

The Gesu Peace and Justice Committee's Anti-Racism subcommittee developed a book club which meets six times a year on the 4th Monday of the month to discuss literature which helps readers explore the experience of "the other," whomever that may be for us as individuals. The next meeting will be Monday, August 30 from 7 - 8:30. Everyone is welcome to participate.

The rules are simple:

- 1) Read the book;
- 2) Join the discussion (no tests involved!)
- 3) Bring a suggestion for the next book.

The Book Club selection for August will be The Help, by Kathryn Stockett. See you at 17180 Oak Drive (3 blocks East of Livernois in the 1st block North of McNichols) in August. For more information call (313) 862-4400.
